2. The produce of inam, jodi, kayamgutta, sarvamanya, kandayam and other lands which are in the occupancy of private individuals, is not included in the above sale.

3. The exclusive privilege above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder, subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, who reserves to himself the right to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4. Parties intending to bid may attend either in person or by duly accredited agents, and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else, unless he deposits a sum of Rs. 200, which, in case of the unsuccessful bidders, will be returned at the close of sale.

5. Bidders should state at the time of sale whether they bid on their own behalf or others. The successful bidder should work up the lease himself, and if he wishes to transfer it to others, he should obtain the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, who shall have power to insist upon payment of a premium for granting the same.

6. The successful bidder shall, within three days after the confirmation of the sale is intimated to him, credit into the Government Treasury of the Taluk concerned, one-third of the total rental, including the deposit already made plus local cess at one anna per rupee, failing which the deposit shall be forfeited and the right re-sold.

7. Re-sale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and in the event of a loss by the re-sale, shall make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale. If the deficit be not paid, it will be recovered as a revenue demand.

8. The lessee shall sign an agreement binding himself to observe the conditions below, and it should be executed within three days from the date on which the confirmation of the sale may be intimated to him; in default, the sum already paid will be forfeited and the right re-sold.

Conditions.

(i) The balance of the lease amount due for the whole period together with the local cess thereon shall be paid in four equal instalments as follows:—

1st instalment	on	or before	1st September 1904.
2nd	do	do	1st January 1905.
3rd	do	do	1st July 1905.
4th	do	do	1st January 1906.

If the lessee fails to remit on due date any of the instalments as above detailed, he shall forfeit his claims to the lease and to the sums already paid by him; nevertheless the dues will be recovered from him as a revenue demand.

(ii) To hold himself responsible to prevent the cutting of tender stems by his servants or sub-contractors.

(iii) To furnish a list of sub-contractors and mestris, who may be appointed by them for the collection of bark in the different working circles.

(iv) The barked wood to be the property of the lessee.

(v) To keep accounts showing the quantity of the bark removed in accordance with the lease and to permit inspection of such accounts by the Deputy Commissioner or the District Forest Officer or any other officer deputid by them.

(vi) To remove each cart-load of bark under a pass issued by the contractor or his agent in the printed form book obtained from the District Forest Officer under his seal and signature and to return the counterfoils to the said officer as soon as each book is finished.

(vii) To hold himself responsible for damage caused by any fire in State Forests or Plantations traceable to his or his employees' negligence.

(viii) To remove out of the limit of the Kolar District and before the 15th July 1906, all bark cut, collected or stored.

(ix) In the event of breach of any of the above conditions, the lease is liable to be cancelled, all the bark collected to be confiscated, and the lessee to a fine not exceeding Rs. 1,000 to be imposed by the Deputy Commissioner.
